

Wild Herbs – Served Fresh from the Garden .....	28
Flower Menus – The Garden Invites You to Dinner .....	29
Saffron & Cardamom – Cooking with Oriental Spices .....	30
Homemade Jam and Marmalade .....	31
Honey-sweet .....	32
The Pleasure of Bathing and Relaxing – From Roman to Modern Times.....	33
500 Years of Fashion .....	34
Enjoying Winter With Culinary Delights .....	35
Macaroons and Christmas Cookies.....	36
Horses – Myth and History of a Noble Animal .....	37
Apple Season.....	38
Be Guests in My Garden.....	39
Noble Sweet and Hot – The World of Traditional Spices.....	40
Roast Apple and Scent of Ginger – Enjoying Winter .....	41
Sunbeams on Your Taste Buds – Cooking with Mediterranean Herbs .....	42
Cinnamon Cookies and Scent of Roast Meat – Winter Charms for Your Home.....	43
La Dolce Vita .....	44
Like a Fine Old Wine – History and Flavour of a Very Special Drink.....	45
Tea – Its History, Culture and Enjoyment .....	46
Christmas Cookies .....	47

Wild Herbs – Served Fresh from the Garden

AUTHOR:

Kerstin Schröder

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Wildpflanzen – aus dem Garten auf den Tisch

PAGES:

112

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

While dandelions, ground-elder and nettles aren't the favourite plants of most gardeners, these unwelcome inhabitants of our gardens do have their good sides: They can be used to prepare delicious meals! In recent years, gourmets have grown increasingly fond of wild herbs, being used as spices, for side dishes, or to give a dish a special note. Instead of having to collect these herbs in nature, you can grow them in your own garden, keeping them close at hand for those last-minute culinary needs. Plant portraits and many delicious recipes seduce the reader to enjoy wild plants such as daisies, purple salsifies or common hogweed.

THE AUTHOR:

Kerstin Schröder is journalist. In her leisure time, she works in an organic garden where she also grows wild herbs.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Flower Menus – The Garden Invites You to Dinner

AUTHOR:

Martina Kabitzsch

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Blütenmenüs – Der Garten bittet zu Tisch

PAGES:

184

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

Cooking with flowers has become quite popular – which is not surprising, since it enhances not only the flavors of meals, but also their appearances and fragrances. In the past, flowers were also valued in cookery for their fragrances and flavours. The modern flower cuisine invites the reader to review traditional recipes, which combine old knowledge with the traditions of various cultures. The book explains how to make dishes special by adding flower fragrances.

THE AUTHOR:

Martina Kabitzsch is an expert on flowers and fragrances. She owns the company “Manufaktur von Blythen”, which specializes in fragrances, spices and products for well-being. She also gives seminars on fragrances and cooking with flowers.

THE PHOTOGRAPHER:

Nikolaus Becker specializes in food photography, mainly for haute cuisine restaurants. His focus lies in unusual perspectives and interesting lighting effects.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Saffron & Cardamom – Cooking with Oriental Spices

AUTHOR:

Rita Henß

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Safran & Kardamom – Die orientalische
Gewürzküche

PAGES:

112

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

Oriental cookery is more popular than ever! Spices like cardamom, nana mint or sumac almost magically turn dishes into gourmet meals, starting hot and spicy fireworks on your tastebuds. In former times, these spices were transported via ship over thousands of miles. Some of them were worth their weight in gold. Today, these exotic tidbits from the Arabian Nights are part of everyday and haute cuisine. Many traditional and extravagant recipes in this book invite the reader to try, and enjoy, the specialties of oriental cuisine.

THE AUTHOR:

Rita Henß is the author of several articles and books about Arabian countries as well as culinary subjects. She has grown to know and love oriental cuisine while travelling between Istanbul and Sanaa, Marrakesh and Damascus.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Homemade Jam and Marmalade

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Selbstgemachte Marmelade

PAGES:

64

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

10,5 x 17 cm

THE BOOK:

Fragrant elder blossoms in spring, delicious strawberries in summer, quinces, plums and apples in autumn – jam helps us to bring flavour and fragrance of blossoms and fruit into our kitchens and onto the table. This culinary gift book contains traditional and creative new recipes for delicious jams and marmalades. The beautiful photos and illustrations contained within make this book a pleasure to look at.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Honey-sweet

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Honigsüß

PAGES:

64

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

10,5 x 17 cm

THE BOOK:

In desserts, in cakes or simply on its own – honey can be enjoyed in a variety of ways. In addition to information about bees and their tasty product, this culinary gift book contains a plethora of delicious recipes, illustrated with many beautiful pictures.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

The Pleasure of Bathing and Relaxing – From Roman to Modern Times

AUTHOR:

Annabelle Fagner/Tilman Schempp

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Genussvoll baden und entspannen – Vom Römerbad bis zum Wellnessstempel

PAGES:

112

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

Aromatic bathing oils, relaxing and healing herbal steams – the desire to indulge oneself and relax in warm water is as old as mankind. This book whisks the reader away into the magic world of oriental baths, Roman thermal baths, medieval baths, famous spas and, of course, into the intimacy of private bathrooms. The roots of modern wellness trends become obvious, the secret of Cleopatra’s famous beauty is disclosed and the recipes for manufacturing soaps are provided. Recipes and practical advice invite the reader to turn his or her bathroom into an oasis of relaxation.

THE AUTHOR:

Annabelle Fagner is pharmacist.

Tilman Schempp is historian. With Thorbecke they have already published “Wise Women’s Herbal Lore”.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

*500 Years of FashionAUTHOR:

Rita Kopp

ORIGINAL TITLE:

500 Jahre Mode

PAGES:

192

IMAGES:

more than 200

SIZE:

21 x 28 cm

THE BOOK:

The glamorous world of catwalks in Paris, London and Milan fills fashion magazines. Fashion is innovative and outrageous – sometimes even on the brink of being scandalous. The borders between design and art often vanish, both in the present as in the past. Rita Kopp follows yesterday's trends and explains how women's and men's fashion developed. She tells her reader about rustling silk, flowing velvet and extravagancies from fashion history. The short texts are illustrated by an abundance of pictures from historical fashion books – a pure pleasure for all fashion fans.

THE AUTHOR:

Rita Kopp studied German literature, history and French. She has done much research in fashion, which is one of her areas of interest.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Enjoying Winter With Culinary Delights

AUTHOR:

Magda Drostel

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Winterliche Gaumenfreuden
Kulinarisch genießen – festlich feiern

PAGES:

112

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

One of the best aspects of winter time are the many feasts that belong to this cold time of year: St. Martin, Christmas and New Year's Eve – all of them are inseparably connected with culinary delights. This book provides many delicious recipes and invites you to try and enjoy them, not only on festive days, but all year round. Celebrate Halloween with a festive pumpkin-based meal or invite friends for a winter tea with tasty cakes and Christmas cookies. Magda Drostel collects many delicious recipes and decoration ideas for various occasions and offers to help you enjoy winter with all your heart (and tastebuds).

THE AUTHOR:

Magda Drostel is a passionate cook and host. She loves to surprise her guests with new recipes and tasteful decorations.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Macaroons and Christmas Cookies

AUTHOR:

Saskia Bannasch

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Makronen und Husarenkrapfen

PAGES:

64

IMAGES:

30 coloured illustrations

SIZE:

10,5 x 17 cm

THE BOOK:

Thirty well-known and lesser known recipes of Christmas baked goods are presented in this little gift book.

THE AUTHOR:

Saskia Bannasch is a graphic designer who loves to bake.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Horses – Myth and History of a Noble Animal

AUTHOR:

Angelika Hirschberg

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Pferde – Mythos und Geschichte eines edlen Tieres

PAGES:

112

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

All the world's happiness is found on horseback – what every passionate rider will confirm today, was not always true for the past: Horses were first of all necessary helpers, which worked as farm or draught horses to support people with their daily labours. But even in those times, horses were more than just working animals: They were used for hunting, for companionship, for status symbols or worshipped as religious symbols. The passionate horse-lover Angelika Hirschberg tells of myths and legends connected with horses, of tales of miraculous feats by horses, of horse gods and of strong connections between horse and rider. This is a book about the history of a very special relationship between man and beast, adorned with beautiful historical illustrations and photos.

THE AUTHOR:

Angelika Hirschberg studied German and French and works as press officer. She is a passionate rider with her own horse.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Apple Season

AUTHOR:

Ute Wielandt

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Apfelzeit

PAGES:

64

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

11 x 17 cm

THE BOOK:

Red or green, sweet or tart, but always crisp, refreshing and tasty, apples are one of our favourite kinds of fruit. Thirty tasty apple recipes are collected here: apple pie, jelly or strudel – easy to cook and delicious to eat! This little book is illustrated with appetizing photographs and beautiful historical paintings.

THE AUTHOR:

Ute Wielandt works as an editor and is a passionate hobby cook.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

*Be Guests in My GardenAUTHOR:

Magda Drostel

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Zu Gast in meinem Garten

PAGES:

136

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

What can be better than a feast in the garden? Since time immemorial the owners of a beautiful garden have always invited friends and family to enjoy the garden together. This book provides the reader with many ideas for beautiful parties in your garden and on your balcony. Delicious recipes and exceptional decoration ideas invite us to copy, gormandize and enjoy. Brilliant garden photos and nostalgic illustrations accompany the texts.

THE AUTHOR:

Magda Drostel is a passionate gardener and cook. She loves to surprise her guests with new recipes.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Noble Sweet and Hot – The World of Traditional Spices

AUTHOR:

Rita Kopp

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Edelsüß und Rosenscharf –
Die Welt der alten Gewürze

PAGES:

112

ILLUSTRATIONS:

numerous coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,5 x 23,5 cm

THE BOOK:

Whether grown in your own garden or imported from foreign countries – spices are surely more than only flavour enhancers. Their aromatic flavours bring back long forgotten memories and invite us on a mental journey to exotic lands. Rita Kopp follows the trail of spice caravans and merchant ships to the origin of the spices. She explains how the spice plants are grown, how they are processed and what their effects are. This book has a very special flavour with recipes that are both old and modern, traditional and exotic, accented by beautiful photos and historical illustrations.

A journey to the world of spices!

THE AUTHOR:

Rita Kopp studied German literature, history and French. For her, culture is part of everyday life. Rita Kopp is a passionate chef. With Thorbecke, she also published “The Little Monastery Garden”, “Roast Apple and Scent of Ginger”, “Sunbeams on Your Taste Buds” and “Cinnamon Cookies and Scent of Roast Meat”.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Roast Apple and Scent of Ginger – Enjoying Winter

AUTHOR:

Rita Kopp

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Bratapfel und Ingwerduft –
Das Wintergenussbuch

PAGES:

112

ILLUSTRATIONS:

66 coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

Winter is the best season to enjoy being at a cosy home. Many winter fruits, spices and vegetables bring nature into the house and remind us of sunny and warm autumn days and the harvest of mature fruits. From spicy winter apples, to oranges, to sweet chestnuts, to ginger, this beautifully illustrated book introduces us to warming and aromatic plants, fruits and spices and teaches us how to use them to delight both our taste buds and eyes. Delicious recipes are provided for beginners and experts alike, demonstrating both established and novel applications of aniseed, cinnamon, vanilla, nutmeg etc.

A book about enjoying winter with all the senses!

THE AUTHOR:

Rita Kopp studied German literature, history and French. For her, culture is part of everyday life. Rita Kopp is a passionate chef. With Thorbecke, she also published “The Little Monastery Garden”, “Noble Sweet and Hot”, “Sunbeams on Your Taste Buds” and “Cinnamon Cookies and Scent of Roast Meat”.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Sunbeams on Your Taste Buds – Cooking with Mediterranean Herbs

AUTHOR:

Rita Kopp

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Sonnenstrahlen für den Gaumen –
Mediterrane Kräuterküche

PAGES:

112

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

Basil, oregano, thyme – the herbs of southern Europe evoke memories of hiking through sun-glowing landscapes and of delicious meals at shady places. In addition to the balanced Mediterranean lifestyle, people of this region use herbs to add to their health and longevity. In this book, Rita Kopp provides descriptions of both balanced living and light, healthy cuisine. Delicious recipes and information about the history and usage of herbs in this region are accompanied by beautiful photos and magnificent historical illustrations.

A book about enjoying the summer with all the senses!

THE AUTHOR:

Rita Kopp studied German literature, history and French. For her, culture is a part of everyday life. Rita Kopp is a passionate chef. With Thorbecke, she also published “The Little Monastery Garden”, “Noble Sweet and Hot”, “Roast Apple and Scent of Ginger” and “Cinnamon Cookies and Scent of Roast Meat”.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

No Finnish rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Cinnamon Cookies and Scent of Roast Meat – Winter Charms for Your Home

AUTHOR:

Rita Kopp

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Zimtgebäck und Bratenduft –
Winterzauber für zu Hause

PAGES:

112

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

While the snow blows outside, it is warm and cosy inside. The house is filled with wonderful scents of warming soups and hotpots, delicious cookies, honey cakes and desserts. The table is decorated with chaplets of fir branches, exquisite spices and luscious oranges spiked with cloves that send their delicious smells through the room. Rita Kopp provides us with suggestions on how to enjoy wintertime with the eyes, nose and taste buds. Delicious recipes for beginners and experts alike are accompanied by decoration ideas and evocative winter poems. Magnificent photos and nostalgic historical illustrations complete the picture.

A book about enjoying winter with all the senses!

THE AUTHOR:

Rita Kopp studied German literature, history and French. For her, culture is a part of everyday life. Rita Kopp is a passionate cook. With Thorbecke, she also published “The Little Monastery Garden”, “Noble Sweet and Hot”, “Roast Apple and Scent of Ginger” and “Sunbeams on Your Taste Buds”.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All foreign rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

*La Dolce VitaAUTHOR:

Erika Schermaul

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Das süße Leben

PAGES:

112

IMAGES:

many coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

Candy apples and honey almonds, delicate chocolates and fruit jams – even the names of sweets are mouth-watering. But sweets are not necessarily unhealthy – Erika Schermaul proves that through many traditional and modern recipes, pictures, stories and anecdotes. The author follows the trail of chocolate from the tropics to domestic sweetmeat shops and Christmas bakeries, explaining the different types of sugar and how to use them. Erika Schermaul discloses her best recipes for desserts, elder syrup, honey cakes and homemade chocolates. Marvellous photos and historical illustrations make this book a real pleasure. Enjoy the sweet life with all the senses!

THE AUTHOR:

Erika Schermaul is a landscape architect. Not only has she designed a demonstration garden for old fruit varieties but she has also published a guide to them.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All foreign rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Like a Fine Old Wine – History and Flavour of a Very Special Drink

AUTHOR:

Johann-Peter Regelmann

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Wie guter, alter Wein – Geschichte und Geschmack eines ganz besonderen Safts

PAGES:

112

ILLUSTRATIONS:

numerous partly coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

Nature and tradition, culture and enjoyment – wine combines these magical elements. Its taste is a treat for all senses. Wine has been cultivated as a special drink for several thousand years. So today's wines and wine-growing areas look back on a very old tradition. Johann-Peter Regelmann describes traditional viticulture and wine pressing techniques and presents related anecdotes and recipes. Beautiful historical engravings and illustrations as well as photos invite the reader to enjoy the world of wine.

THE AUTHOR:

Dr. Johann-Peter Regelmann studied philosophy and biology. He works as journalist and university lecturer.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Tea – Its History, Culture and Enjoyment

AUTHOR:

Tilman Schempp

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Tee – Geschichte, Kultur, Genuss

PAGES:

112

ILLUSTRATIONS:

58 coloured illustrations

SIZE:

23,8 x 23,8 cm

THE BOOK:

Someone drinking tea travels. As well as a good book, a cup of tea can take you out of everyday life and your thoughts can follow the flavours of tea back to their origins. This book takes the reader along to a journey from the plantations where Ceylon tea was cultivated, to the wild growing honeybush trees of South Africa ... from old recipes of the medieval nun Hildegard von Bingen to Japanese tea ceremonies. Photos full of ambience and historical illustrations take you on a journey to the roots of tea.

A book to enjoy – along with or instead a cup of tea!

THE AUTHOR:

Tilman Schempp is a historian and an enthusiastic tea lover.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

All language rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.

Christmas Cookies

AUTHOR:

Saskia Bannasch

ORIGINAL TITLE:

Vanillekipferl und Wundernüsschen

PAGES:

64

IMAGES:

30 coloured illustrations

SIZE:

12 x 19 cm

THE BOOK:

Christmas and cookies are an inseparable couple. 30 of the best recipes are presented in this little gift book.

THE AUTHOR:

Saskia Bannasch is a graphic designer who loves to bake.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE:

No Finnish rights available.

PRICE:

By agreement.